

SOC 210: ENSAYO FINAL (FINAL ESSAY)

FINAL ETHNOGRAPHY

HABILIDADES (SKILLS)

- Crafting a unique argument
- Drawing on primary and secondary research
- Bridging empirical research with society

TAREA (ASSIGNMENT)

Your final essay should represent the culmination of your research from the semester. In your essay, you should draw from:

- Address a unique question
 - Your question should be something you are genuinely interested in answering
 - The answer to your core question should emerge from your field study/project
- Primary research
 - Observations from the field (10-15)
 - Interviews from the field (5-10)
 - Reflections from observations and interviews done in the field
- Secondary research (at least 15)
 - Books
 - Peer-reviewed articles
 - Articles from objective news sources
 - Each source should be well-researched and carefully situated in your article
- Length
 - Your final essay should range between 15-20 pages plus your bibliography
 - ASA format
- Field Journal
 - You will keep a field journal that includes entries from class and your research site
 - You need to turn this journal in with your final essay
 - Your journal may be kept in a notebook or in digital format

How to start

- Review your focus statement and refine as necessary
- Read back through your assignments from the semester
- Carefully review the template provided on the course website
- Begin weaving your essay together within the template that is provided

Style Guide

- Please use ASA format for your final essay

EVALUACIÓN (ASSESSMENT)

- See grading rubric on website
- Read this rubric very carefully